Article IV. Board of Trustees

Definitions/Notes:

- SMM = Seattle Maharashtra Mandal
- Executive Committee (EC) = Board of Directors
- (A)GBM = (Annual) General Body Meeting

- SMM’s Annual meeting agenda should include “Election of Trustees”
- SHALL is intended to be implied as MUST

SMM’s Operating budget refers to the annual budget EC uses to fund its regular events – this budget generally is made up from the recurring revenues such as membership fees, event entry fees, matching gifts, etc. SMM General fund refers to the overall funds SMM has accumulated over the years.

1. Number

- There shall be three trustees for SMM.
- President of the Executive Committee shall be the ex-officio member of the Board of Trustees without any voting right.
- A trustee cannot concurrently serve on another elected position of SMM (e.g., EC)

2. Duties & Responsibilities

- The Board of Trustees shall report to the General Body of membership of the SMM.
- Trustees have fiduciary responsibilities – as such they shall act in the best interests of SMM and its members and in a manner, that are aligned with the SMM’s mission.
- Trustees shall provide guidance to the Executive Committee in discharging their duties with the aim to ensure their actions and plans are aligned with the SMM’s mission and follow SMM Constitution and by-laws.
- The Board of Trustees shall manage SMM’s general funds in a responsible manner and disburse seed funds to the Executive Committee if needed for special projects and events.
- The Board of Trustees shall be consulted by the Executive Committee for any single event or any plan that involves an expenditure of more than Ten thousand USD. The Board of Trustees could update this level based on SMM’s annual operating budget.
- The trustees shall have the authority to attend any and all meetings of the Executive Committee as observers. If their presence is requested by the President of the SMM Executive Committee, they can participate in the discussions but cannot vote.
- Board of trustees shall meet at least 3 times a year.
- Board of trustees may lay down rules around regular cadence of BOT meetings, attendance expectations of trustees in those meetings, activities, and other rules of conduct for trustees from time to time. Not following these rules can be grounds of dismissal of a trustee.
- Board of Trustees shall submit a report of its activities and opinion on the state of the SMM at the annual General Body meeting of the members. Board of Trustees shall have the authority to ask for relevant information from the Executive Committee (e.g., financial reports or other information) for preparing their statement.
- The Board of Trustees, with a unanimous vote of its members, is authorized to require the Executive Committee to call a special meeting of the SMM General Body to discuss specific matter of concern to them.

3. Nomination

- Nomination & election process for trustee will be conducted by Election Officer(s) designated by the SMM Executive Committee. These Election Officer(s) can be the same as ones conducting Executive Committee elections. They themselves cannot be nominees in the election they are conducting.

- b. Election officer shall call for nominations at least 50 days before the election date, not counting the day of election itself. Call for nomination will include number of positions and their terms.
- c. Nomination must be received by the election officer at least 30 days before the election date, not counting the day of election itself.
- d. A BoT nominee must be nominated by a current SMM member. Self-nomination is not allowed. An SMM member can nominate at most 3 persons. Nominating person is expected to get acceptance from nominees before submitting their nominations.
- e. Election officer(s) will review all nominations against qualification criteria described elsewhere in this document.
- f. List of qualified nominees shall be communicated to the general body at least 20 days before the election date, not counting the day of election itself.

4. Qualification

A qualified nominated person must meet all of these qualifications:

- a. Nominated person must currently be a member of SMM and should have been a previous member for 4 years or more (not necessarily consecutive)
- b. Nominated person must be a current resident and should have been a resident of the greater Seattle area for the past 5 years or more (not necessarily consecutive).
- c. If the nominated person was ever elected or appointed to any position of SMM (e.g., EC, BoT, etc.), he/she must have completed that term in good standing (i.e., was not removed by vote of other board/Committee members, or forfeited his/her position by failing to meet requirements laid down by the board/committee, etc.)
- d. Nominated person must have served on the EC for at least two one-year terms (not necessarily consecutive). EC can waive this requirement with concurrence of two-thirds of EC members present and voting.
- e. Did not fail to get required number of votes in the last 2 years for the position of a trustee or an Executive Committee member
- f. If another member of the nominated person's household is serving in the current BoT or EC, their term must be scheduled to finish before the nominated person's term, if elected, is scheduled to begin.

5. Term

- a. Term of a trustee shall be three (3) years except when all trustee positions are up for election at the same time, in which case 1st trustee position will be for 2 years, 2nd trustee position will be for 3 years, and 3rd trustee position will be for 4 years.
- b. Trustee cannot serve more than 2 consecutive terms. If approved by the Executive Committee with a two-third majority vote from those present and voting, a trustee may be nominated for an additional 3rd term if the person meets all other required qualifications

- c. Trustee must continue to be an SMM member for the duration his/her entire term – they must renew their membership no later than 1 month after starting of a new membership year – failure to do so shall lead to automatic dismissal from the BoT.
- d. Each trustee shall hold office until the expiration of position's specified term. It is expected that outgoing trustees shall be available and cooperate with incoming trustee for handover of their responsibilities.

6. Election

- a. Election for trustees is held even if sufficient number of candidates are not available to fill all available positions
- b. Elections of trustees will take place in a General Body meeting. Unless it is a special election caused by unexpected vacancy, elections for trustee shall take place at the same time as the Executive Committee (usually at the Annual General Body meeting).
- c. Trustees shall be elected by simple majority of eligible members present and voting at a General Body Meeting.
- d. If all available positions are not filled, a fresh election shall be scheduled after at least 60 days but no later than 180 days.
- e. When elections are held for positions with varying term lengths, elected candidates are assigned to positions in the following manner: person receiving highest number of votes is assigned to the position with the longest term, person receiving next highest number of votes is assigned to the position with the next longest term, and so forth.

7. Resignation and Removal

- a. A trustee may resign at any time by a notice in writing to the President of the Executive Committee. Resignation shall not discharge any accrued obligation of the trustee.
- b. Unless otherwise specified in the notice, the resignation shall take effect upon receipt thereof by the Executive Committee. Acceptance of the resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.
- c. A trustee can be removed with cause by 2/3rd majority vote of the Executive Committee present and voting.
- d. A trustee can be removed for any cause (e.g., no confidence, decisions or conduct that are contrary to SMM's vision & goals, etc.) by a simple majority vote at a General Body Meeting. Such a motion must be on the formal agenda of the General Body (i.e., vote to remove a trustee cannot be held as a 'walk-in' agenda item)

8. Vacancy

- a. A single vacancy on the Board of Trustee may be filled by a simple majority vote of the Executive

- b. Committee present and voting. Such an appointee shall hold office until the next General Body Meeting where election for this position must be held. The appointee must meet all criteria specified in the “Qualifications” clause.

9. Compensation & Liability

- a. No compensation shall be paid to any of the trustees for their services. This does not limit reimbursements for the out of pocket expenses incurred in the conduct of the business for the Board or SMM related activities
- b. Trustees shall not be held financially liable jointly and/or individually for the transactions conducted on behalf of the SMM. This does not include fraudulent or negligent conduct that leads to financial losses for the SMM

Article V. Executive Committee

1. The Executive Committee (hereafter called EC) shall manage all the business and affairs of SMM as per the Constitution and these Bylaws.
2. The EC shall be elected by General Body as provided in the Constitution, at an Annual General Body Meeting of SMM.
3. The Members of EC shall be elected only for the term of one calendar year. The term shall begin on the first day of the month of January and end on the last day of December.
4. The Annual General Body Meeting shall be held and the EC for the following term shall be elected before the first day of December.
5. The Annual General Body Meeting shall be always held at a public venue, for example – public library or public school.
6. The elected members of the EC shall elect the EC officers as provided in the Constitution, no later than the end of first week of their term.
7. An EC member can serve up to three consecutive terms. After serving three consecutive terms, if any EC members would like to serve in the next term (4th, 5th, etc.) then that must be approved by the incoming EC. If there are more than 17 applicants for the EC, then the longest tenured EC member(s) will not qualify for the next or following term. If there are 2 or more equally tenured EC members, the incoming EC must vote to determine which of the equally tenured EC members continue to serve on the EC. In case of a tie, the incoming EC President gets the tiebreaker vote.
8. Extend the EC member status for existing EC member beyond the allowable limit of 3 years provided the EC Member is elected for a BMM EC position. Further such extension may only be allowed as long as the EC member is active in the BMM EC position
9. The SMM President can serve up to only one (1) consecutive term.
10. If any vacancy arises on the EC through any cause, the EC shall send a call to General Body to get the list of members interested in being EC member. EC shall then choose to appoint any member from the list to fill that vacancy by majority vote. This selection should be communicated within 30 days to all SMM members.
11. Any EC member may be dismissed from the EC by bringing a vote of dismissal for the member in presence of all EC members and three fourth majority of EC members voting for the member to be dismissed. Twenty-one days’ notice shall be required to be given to the EC member being considered for dismissal.

Article VI Election of Executive Committee

1. The current EC shall elect two Election Officers to supervise the election of the new EC for the following term. The term of these Election Officers shall end on the last day of the calendar year.
2. The Election Officers shall not be eligible to contest the election of EC for the following term.
3. The Election Officers shall be responsible for conducting the elections, if necessary, to elect the EC for the following term, including counting the votes and certifying the election results.
4. The list of members eligible to vote shall be frozen two (2) months before the election. Any person becoming an SMM member after this date shall not be eligible to vote in elections held during that year.
5. Every household that has separate membership shall have votes as described by article III - Membership.
6. The election of the EC shall be by plurality vote of members of the Mandal in good standing present and voting in person, in the annual meeting of the General Body. No proxy voting will be allowed.
7. Requests to become an EC member for the following term shall be received by the Election Officers no later than October 31st.
8. Any household that has membership may contest for only one EC position only during a term.
9. The EC shall mail the names of the contesting candidates to the SMM members at before the date of the annual general body meeting at which the election is held.
10. Contesting candidates may designate one representative each, to be present during balloting and counting of ballots.
11. The results of the election shall be declared prior to adjournment of the annual general body meeting.

Article VII Budget and Finance

1. The EC shall publish financial summary to its members at least once year. If any current SMM member desires to know the financial summary of SMM should send a written request to the treasurer during the term.
